

Dawn to Dusk: A Daily Order for Busy Kids

Who: Rising 9–12th graders
 When: July 27–31, 9AM–3PM
 With: Mr. Becker
 Cost: $160

Ever wonder what it was like to live in a medieval monastery and dedicate your life to devotion before God? We can't transport you back to 14th century France, but you can come spend a week practicing a Daily Order, worshipping together, reflecting personally, feasting, and engaging in discussions focused around film, art, and culture.

Veritas Summer Camps

Growing
in Truth, Beauty
and Goodness
all Summer Long

MAN Camp

Who: Rising 5–8th grade boys
When: July 6–10, 9 AM–3 PM
With: Mr. Walker
Cost: $200

What makes a REAL man? What should every boy know or be able to do? How ought we to prepare our boys to fight for truth, goodness, and beauty? MAN Camp will take a step toward reaching these goals. Sports, weapons, survival skills, studying past wars and battle strategies, and listening to God's description of what it means to be real men will all be a part of MAN Camp.

Sewing Camp

Who: Rising 5–8th grade girls
When: July 6–10, 9 AM–Noon
With: Mrs. Hash
Cost: $115

Sewing Camp aims to instill a practical life-skill while helping young ladies learn to create something beautiful. This camp will give beginning seamstresses the opportunity to learn basic cutting and sewing skills while constructing a simple skirt or blouse out of fabric of their own choosing.

Authors, Jr.

Who: Rising 3–5th graders
When: July 6–10, Noon–3 PM
With: Mrs. Arrick
Cost: $110

Who will produce the next great story for our culture? I don't mean the next New York Times bestseller, I mean a story that stirs the imagination and causes readers to yearn for courage and virtue, truth and beauty. This camp will emphasize the basic tools of good writing through games, role-play, and other fun exercises while helping young writers create their own short mystery story by the end of the week!

Daley Detective Agency

Who: Rising 2–4th graders
When: July 13–17, 9 AM–Noon
With: Mrs. Arrick
Cost: $110

The goals of this camp are to improve younger students' basic math abilities and to instill a love for mathematics. Students are signing up to be part of a special operation with the DALEY DETECTIVE AGENCY (DDA), and will spend their time solving crime problems, breaking codes, and using their math skills to assist the clients of the DDA!

Bringing Still to Life

Who: Rising 5–8th graders
When: July 13–17, 9 AM–Noon
With: Mr. Clark
Cost: $120

Love drawing? Love admiring and imitating God's activity in Creation? This art camp will develop your abilities with a pencil and a brush as you capture the beauty of still life. This camp will focus on improving the students' artistic abilities through charcoal drawing and watercolor painting.

Sports Camp I & II

Sports Camp I (Baseball, Basketball, Soccer)

Who: Rising 1–3rd grade boys and girls
When: July 20–24, daily from 9 AM–Noon
With: Mr. Walker
Cost: $125

Sports Camp II (Baseball, Basketball, Flag Football)

Who: Rising 4–7th grade boys
When: July 27–31, 8 AM–Noon
With: Mr. Walker
Cost: $135

Are you gunning to be the next Major League Baseball star? Or do you just love kicking a soccer ball as hard as you can? Either way, come have fun shooting baskets, hitting baseballs, and scoring goals as we develop the basic skills of each sport over the course of this multi-sport week.

Mystery Moments

Who: Rising 4–7th graders
When: July 20–24, 9 AM–Noon
With: Mrs. Arrick
Cost: $110

Love reading? Or maybe you would love reading if the stories involved suspense, detectives, and bringing criminals to justice? This camp will involve games and fun exercises aimed at developing strong reading abilities while enjoying the detective work in Father Brown by G.K. Chesterton. In addition to reading the stories, students will prepare a play, based upon one of Father Brown's cases, to be performed by the end of the week.

Why Math is Your Favorite Subject

Who: Rising 5–8th graders
When: July 20–31 (weekdays) Noon–3PM
With: Mr. Siegenthaler
Cost: $220

"I am interested in mathematics only as a creative art." —G.H. Hardy. Does the word mathematics inspire thoughts of creativity and art, or bad memories of long division and solving tedious equations? Come discover the wonder of math topics you don't study in school! This two week camp will explore the mathematics of games and puzzles, tessellations, fractals, star polygons, cryptographs, code breaking and much more. The camp will culminate in a trip to the National Cryptologic Museum outside Washington DC on the final Friday.

Algebra Boot Camp

Who: Rising 6–9th graders
When: July 27–31, 9 AM–Noon
With: Mr. Siegenthaler
Cost: $110

Need to brush up a bit on your Algebra before September? Come prepare for or refresh yourself on the basics of Algebra over the course of this week. In this camp students will master topics including fractions, decimals, negative numbers, solving single variable equations, graphing equations, and more. Glazed looks of confusion and furrowed brows will be left in the mud after work in this boot camp! Students will have the option of traveling to the National Cryptologic Museum outside of Washington DC the afternoon of the last day of camp.
